

Meet the Instructors

Mary Wilkinson, PGA

Golf Professional

$60.00 for 45 minutes

Mary is a consummate professional with a decorated career. Her resume includes Director of Golf and Head Golf Professional at the prestigious Salem Country Club, Head Golf Professional at The International, and Assistant Golf Professional at Winchester Country Club. Mary's playing and education background is equally impressive. She graduated from William and Mary where she won more than a dozen individual golf titles. Mary also played in a couple LPGA tour events and qualified twice for match play in the United States Women's Amateur. Mary's strengths include and are certainly not limited to customer service, tournament operations, merchandising, and teaching.

Anthony Martinho, PGA

Head Golf Professional

$70.00 for 45 minutes

Anthony has been a Head Golf Professional for the past 20 years. He started in the private sector at The Georgetown Club as an Assistant Golf Professional. After a successful 2 year stint at Black Swan Country Club decided to join the team at Four Oaks. Anthony has a Masters Degree in Business Administration from Salem State College where he graduated with honors. His strengths are customer service, managing a golf facility, teaching, and the implementation of various policies and procedures. He played in 2 NCAA championships, many Massachusetts Opens and Amateurs. Anthony was Captain of the Salem State College team and also became Head Coach after his playing days were over.